

BEACH ROUTE

EXPLORE THE MAGIC OF OUR COAST

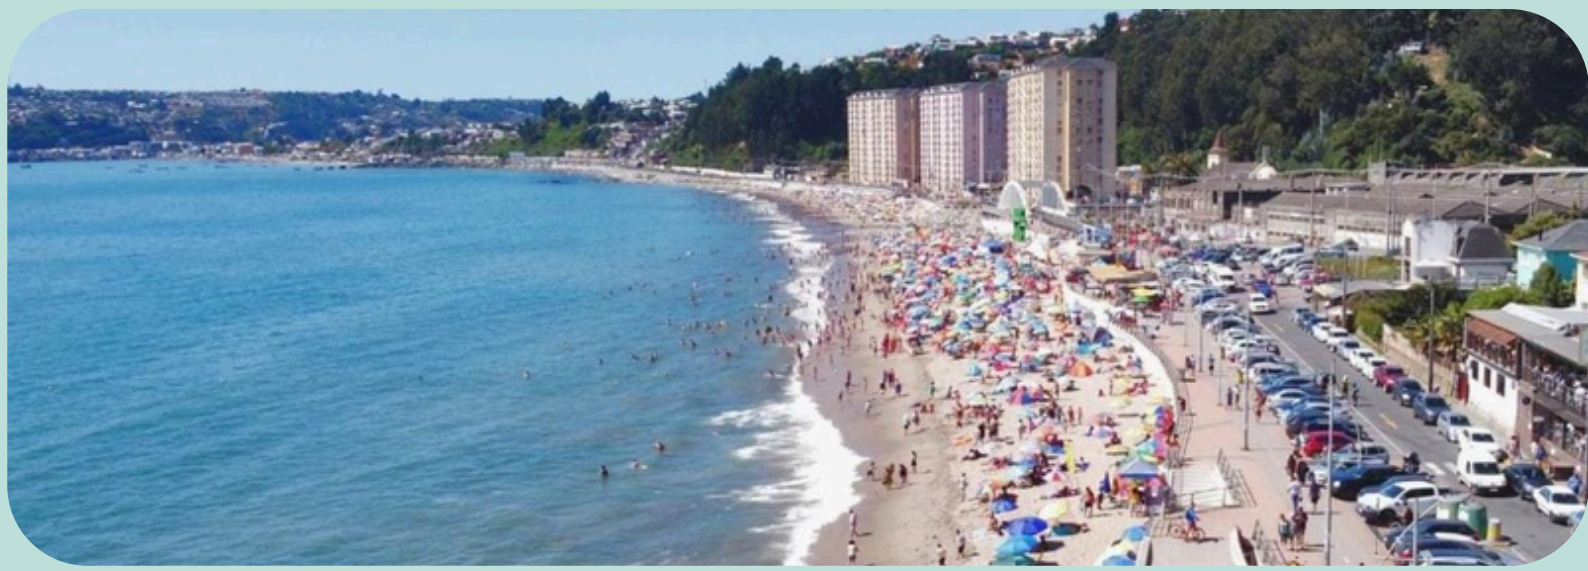

BEACH PENCO

Enjoy its golden sands and calm waters, perfect for swimming or simply relaxing. Halfway along the waterfront, you'll find ``Fuerte La Planchada`` the oldest colonial structure in Greater Concepción offering a unique glimpse into the region's past. The beach and its community are inclusive and welcoming to everyone, creating a warm and friendly atmosphere. Just a 5-minute walk from the shore, the central plaza is a great spot to complete your visit. Located only 12 km from downtown Concepción, the trip takes around 25 minutes via Route 150 toward Penco.

HOW TO GET THERE?

By bus, the trip takes approximately 40 minutes. You can catch the bus downtown, on Los Carrera Street. There look for the ones that are number 30 (Ruta las playas or Ruta del Mar) they usually have signs indicatting "Penco" or "Lirqueyoun". You'll know you've arrived at Penco by a big sign on the right side of your window! Then you have to get off on the Main plaza, from there is a short walk to the west and you will be astonished by scenic beach that is waiting for you.

BEACH BELLAVISTA

Bellavista in Tomé is an inclusive destination with white sands and gentle waves, perfect for swimming and relaxing. Surrounded by local history, here you can enjoy stunning views, delicious seafood, and a family-friendly atmosphere. The best part is that it offers universal access and, sometimes, amphibious chairs so everyone can enjoy the sea without barriers. It's an ideal place to stroll, savor great food, and unwind all with a touch of history and accessibility for all.

HOW TO GET THERE?

To get to Playa Bellavista by car, take Route 150 toward Tomé for about 40 minutes. There is parking available on the street or in nearby areas.

By bus, take lines 401, 411, or 421 from Chacabuco avenue at the corner of Tucapel street; It should take approximately one hour, you could ask the driver if the bus is going to Bellavista or to the nearest stop jus to be sure. From there, the beach is just at five minutes walking. You'll know you've arrived when you see the beach on the left side of the road. Buses come in different colors, so check which one you're taking.

BEACH COCHOLGÜE

It offers a natural escape with a strong local character. Known for its bigger waves, it's a favorite spot for surfers and provides stunning photographic opportunities, especially at sunset. While not always ideal for swimming due to the waves, it's perfect for strolls along its mix of sand and pebble shores. Here, you'll find a welcoming, family-friendly atmosphere and delicious, fresh seafood at local restaurants. It's a place to connect with nature, experience authentic flavors, and enjoy a vibrant coastal experience.

HOW TO GET THERE

From Tomé, you have to keep going north following the uphill street "Av. Werner", and few meters ahead you will have the entrance to "Villa Cocholgue" which is the main access. Keep in mind that the access is not adapted for people with disabilities.

SOME PRO-TIPS

To fully enjoy your visit, it is recommended to use sunscreen, bring plenty of water, and wear comfortable shoes for the trails. Make sure you are in beach suitable for swimming. Remember take your trash with you and take care of the natural environment. If you visit during the winter, check the trail conditions in advance, as there may be weather restrictions.
