

ANGOSTURA DEL BIO-BIO

¡COME AND ENJOY NATURE! IN THE ANGOSTURA, A DESTINATION THAT HAS MANY NATURAL SPACES TO SHARE.

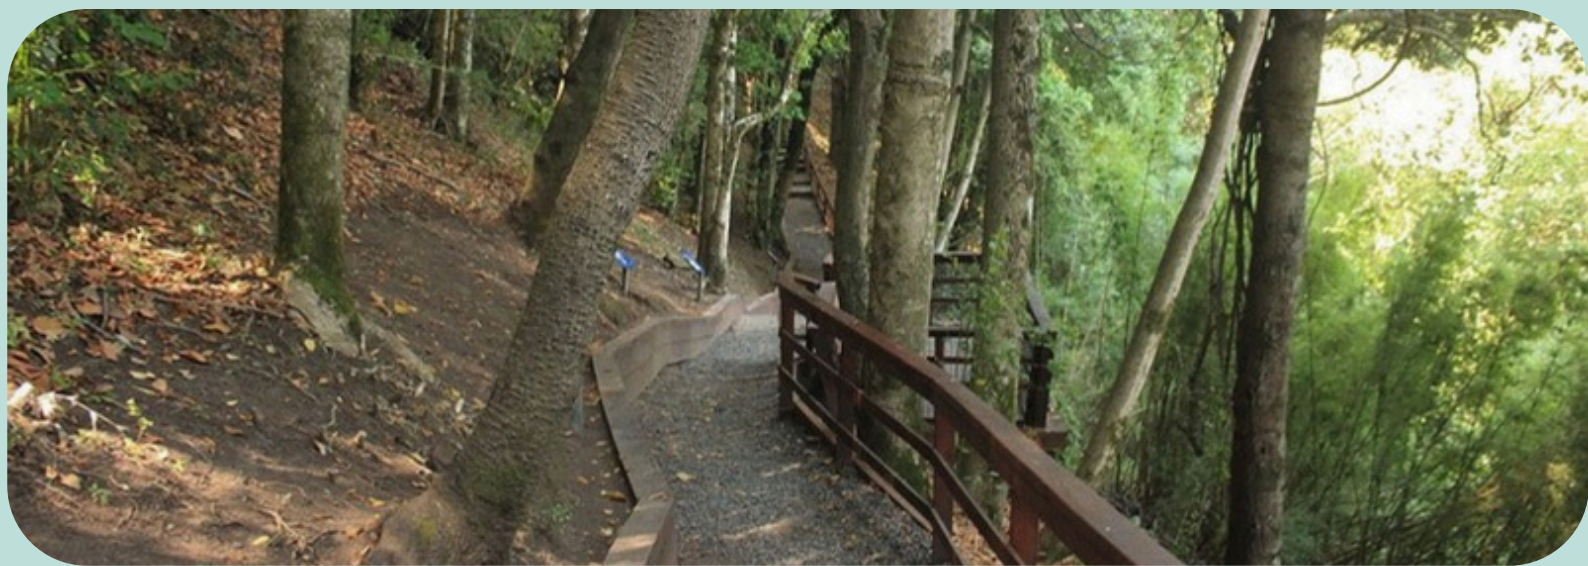

ANGOSTURA BIO-BIO.

In the Angostura of Biobío, we have many natural spaces to share. Enjoy the best views of the Biobío River, do some trekking along our trails and mountains, discover a variety and valuable flora and fauna, including native species like the quillay, or you could simply marvel at the surrounding sounds and enjoy a peaceful sunset.

HOW TO GET TO THE COMMUNE?

by bus: From Concepción, you can take a bus to Santa Bárbara or Quilaco. From there, you'll need to take another bus or local transportation to reach your final destination.

by Car: From Concepción, you will have to get to the Interstate 5 heading south until Los Ángeles, then you want to drive to Santa Babara and keep going west to The Andes

ATTRACTIONS MADE FOR YOU

This destination offers a rich mix of natural attractions and cultural charm. Explore the beauty of Angostura Park, then enjoy delicious cuisine at nearby restaurants. Discover unique crafts fair, tours. For a peaceful escape, enjoy relaxation following the wooden trail.

EL CORRENTINO

This is a navigable tour of the Angostura Reservoir that will allow you to discover and fully appreciate the natural beauty of the area and its surroundings. with a boat of a maximum capacity for 18 passengers everyone can get the chance to experience this ride.

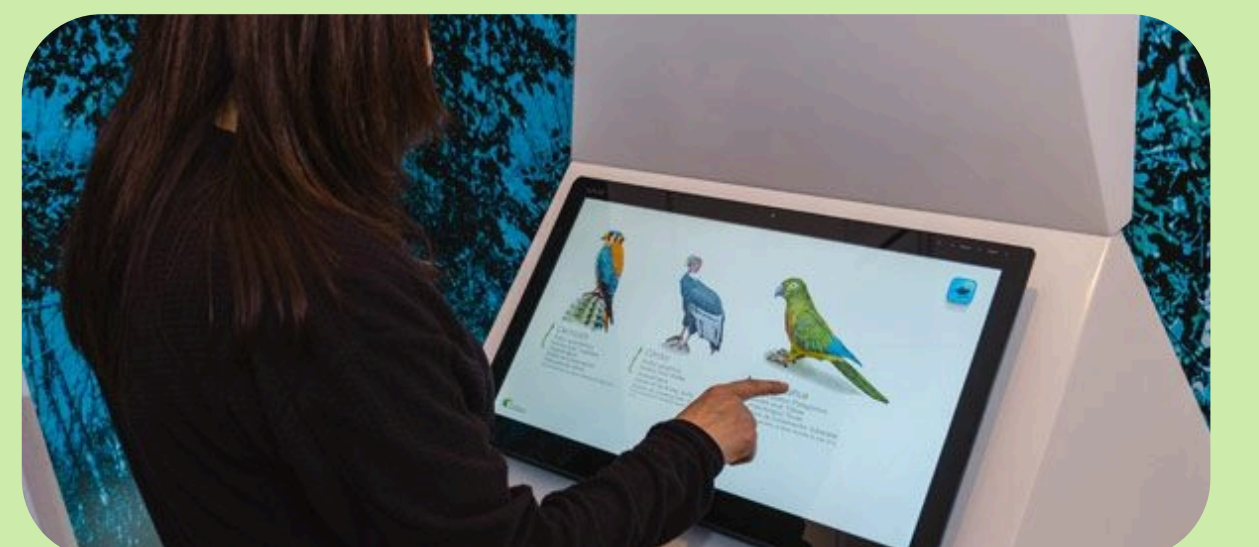

HUEQUECURA VIEWPOINT

This must-see spot in the park offers a panoramic view of the reservoir, the Angostura Hydroelectric Power Plant, all surrounded by native vegetation. The access is via a 400-meter interpretive trail with signage about local flora and fauna. At the end, visitors can buy handicrafts and local products. The trail has a medium difficulty and the visit takes around 30 minutes.

SIGHTSEEING TOUR

Angostura Reservoir offers tours that allow you to learn about its hydroelectric plant. Visitors can access a visitor center with self-guided and self-explanatory stations that demonstrate the water cycle, local flora and fauna, the history of the project, and local tourist attractions.

DON'T FORGET!

Remember that the park is open everyday from 10:00 to 18:00, and don't forget that some attractions are available only on summer.

To stay there, remember taking a bottle of water with you protect yourself from the sun